Dear David:

The parties to this docket are hopeful presenting the Commission with a settlement agreement resolving amongst the parties all issues in this proceeding. I am writing to respectfully request a status conference for this afternoon at 4pm to provide an update on settlement and to discuss the procedural schedule in this docket, and in particular to request an extension of the surrebuttal deadline.

I would ask counsel copied here to advise if they are available for such call or to otherwise advise that they would consent to the status conference proceeding without them present.
